

Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nervous free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

THE MAIN PROBLEM

To Be Faced In the Island of Cuba Is That of Capital and Labor.

MONEY WAITING TO INVEST

So Soon as a Stable Government Is Formed—Present Industries Crippled For Want of Labor—No Incentive to Cubans to Work, as Subsistence Is Too Easy.

Santiago de Cuba, Nov. 8.—The main problem to be faced by the province of Santiago, in fact by the entire island of Cuba, in its effort to throw off the lethargy of centuries, are those, which, to a greater or lesser degree, afflict all communities, namely, capital and labor.

With regard to the first, there are very large numbers of people only desiring an opportunity to invest in the island as soon as a settled form of government is decided upon, but who naturally, under present conditions, knowing nothing regarding the future safeguards to property or the amount of taxes to be levied, and the stability of the future government when it is formed, hesitate to risk their money. In this province alone it is estimated that there are fully $20,000,000 only waiting for an assured form of government to be at once invested in business enterprises.

A still greater problem to be solved is the labor question, for even the existing industries are crippled for want of hands this particularly applying to the mines. The pay is from 75 cents a day upward, or about the same as paid in the phosphate mines of Florida, and the mines will board the laborers at 25 cents a day.

It may be taken as an established fact that the present generation of Cubans will never become miners. They are far too enervated, and indolent, and the negro race here find the means of a lazy subsistence too easily at hand to have any incentive to labor. The Cuban may do a little light work in the shade; he may make a few cigars, or he may even condescend to do a little housework, if you do not expect too much in the way of cleaning, but what he prefers is to put on a few stars, a huge pair of boots, enormous spurs and a hat something wondrous to behold, mount an easy-going Cuban pony and parade the principal streets. Give this to the Cuban (white or colored) and you have him as pleased as a child with a new toy, as proud as a peacock and about as sensible as an ostrich.

The Jamaica Negro. In Santiago there is another element adding to the labor troubles, namely, the Jamaica negro, who is one degree worse than his Cuban brother in the matter of industry. There are over 2,000 of his type here, all wanting jobs as waiters, stewards, valets or something equally easy, but as to the real work of the island, the digging, mining and labor that will bring the sweat to a man's brow, the Jamaica negro wants none of it. The problem was long since solved in his own country, by the importation of the Indian coolies, under contract to work five years. The mine owners and other large employers of labor are considering some plan whereby they can overcome the difficulty of obtaining the men. The Spanish-American Iron company has sent to Spain for 500 men.

No one can take a 3-hours' ride over this part of the island without being impressed with the fact that the earth is about the most productive on the face of the globe, and that a man with a family and $200 or $300 is probably better off here than anywhere else in the world. With very little labor he gets not only the necessities of life, but even its luxuries, and in addition can always sell enough to supply himself and family with the things he cannot grow. His coffee, sugar, vegetables, fruits, chickens, hogs, goats and tobacco he can raise himself. To men whose ambition

Death Loves a "Shining Mark." "She is an only daughter and only seventeen," writes Mrs. H. H. Conklin, of Morton Avenue, Batavia, N. Y., in a recent letter addressed to Doctor R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y." "We began your medicine in May (the 'Favorite Prescription'). My daughter then was very wasted, in fact we did not think she could live long. She had profuse menstruation which was of long standing; also a bad cough. We had spent a great deal of money and worried a great deal. When she began taking your medicine her weight was only eighty-seven pounds. She now weighs from ninety-eight to one hundred all the time and is well. I cured entirely of her difficulty, has no cough at all, and all for eight or ten dollars. It had gotten to be a serious question with us. We had done all we could for her. We are truly grateful to you for all your kind advice and sympathy in the matter. We feel that you are a personal friend."

No living physician has a wider practical experience or enjoys a higher reputation in the treatment of diseases peculiar to women than Dr. Pierce. In cases of this nature he will send by mail careful professional advice without charge, and instructions whereby the most obstinate ailments may be entirely overcome. His "Favorite Prescription" is the only proprietary remedy ever designed by an educated, authorized physician specifically to cure women's diseases. It is the only medicine which makes motherhood perfectly safe and comparatively easy and painless.

Say "No" and stick to it when urged to accept a substitute.

TO AVOID FRICTION.

Measures to Prevent Trouble Between Spanish and American Soldiers.

Havana, Nov. 8.—Lieutenant Colonel Claus and Captain Hart yesterday afternoon delivered to General Parrado, president of the Spanish evacuation commission, a note touching the location of the Cuban camp at Cienfuegos, which conveyed the assurance that American officers, commissioned for this special purpose, had taken measures whereby all possibility of friction between the Spanish-Cuban troops there would be avoided.

Talking unofficially regarding evacuation, General Parrado said he had received no answer from Madrid instructing him to accept as final the date fixed by the Americans. Lieutenant Colonel Claus informed him that the inventories now being made by the Americans were approaching completion, and required that a joint session of the evacuation commissions be held to discuss the final limitations as to movable property as soon as the inventories were finished. No date was fixed, but it is expected that a joint session for determining this matter will be held soon.

The Colon Practically Abandoned. Washington, Nov. 8.—Captain Chester's decision Sunday to abandon the work of wrecking the Colon marks the end of that undertaking on the part of the government. The navy department is ready to engage with thoroughly responsible wrecking concerns, providing the latter absolve the government from payments unless the ships are delivered in a United States navy yard.

ELECTION ESTIMATES

Claims Made by the Different Parties in Various States.

New York, Nov. 8.—At the Democratic state headquarters it is claimed Van Wyck will carry the state by a plurality of from 25,000 to 50,000, while at the Republican headquarters it is predicted Roosevelt will have 50,000 plurality.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 8.—Election of Republican state ticket generally conceded.

Baltimore, Nov. 8.—Congressional situation is unchanged. The First district is conceded to the Democrats and the Sixth to the Republicans. Both parties claim the remaining districts.

Jersey City, Nov. 8.—Republicans claim the state for Voorhees by 5,000, while the Democrats claim it from 7,000 to 12,000.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—The Republican chairman claims the state by 131,000 plurality for Stone for governor, while the Democrats figure out 35,000 plurality for Jenks for the same office.

Topeka, Nov. 8.—Populists say they will have 10,000 to 12,000 plurality. Republicans claim the state by 20,000 majority.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—Fusionists expect 16,000 majority. Republicans say their entire state ticket will be elected by 5,000 majority.

St. Louis, Nov. 8.—The feeling prevails here that the Democracy has its own way.

Salt Lake, Nov. 8.—Republican committee claims the state by 3,000 majority.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 8.—The Democrats will carry this state.

Nashville, Nov. 8.—Well posted Republicans admit McMillin's (Dem.) election by 3,000 majority.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 8.—Chairmen of both parties see no reason to change estimates. Both parties claim the state.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—There is a fighting chance for both parties.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 8.—The Democrats claim 200,000 for their state ticket. There will be 11 Democratic congressmen out of 18 seats. Republicans claim the other two.

Des Moines, Nov. 8.—Republicans say they will have 50,000, while the Democrats concede 10,000.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Fusionists say they will carry the state by 8,000, while the Republicans claim they will have 6,000.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Republican tickets for the entire state and congressional will, it is predicted, be elected.

Milwaukee, Nov. 8.—Republicans estimate their vote at 40,000 plurality. Democrats not giving figures.

St. Paul, Nov. 8.—Democrats claim Lind, for governor, will be elected by from 15,000 to 20,000. The Republicans claim everything, but give no figures.

Denver, Nov. 8.—Fusionists claim the state from 35,000 to 75,000. Republicans say they will carry the majority of legislative candidates.

Detroit, Nov. 8.—Pinegrove will be elected by nearly 83,400 plurality and nearly all congressmen claimed by Republicans. Democratic candidate for governor predicts he will defeat Pinegrove.

Betting Changed. New York, Nov. 8.—There is a wonderful change in the betting on the gubernatorial race and the odds of 10 to 8 on Van Wyck, which had prevailed for several days have switched over to the Republican candidate and 10 to 8, and in some instances 2 to 1 are offered on his chances to win. A good amount of this money found takers, but there seemed to be a surplus of Republican money on the market and much of it went uncured for.

DIED IN A CORNSHOCK

Teamster of the Second Division at Camp Meade Found Dead.

Camp Meade, Pa., Nov. 8.—While a number of Second Tennessee soldiers on guard near Middletown yesterday were playing hide-and-seek in a cornfield, one of their number found the body of a dead man. It was in a state of decomposition and there were ugly gashes about the neck and eyes and the ends of the fingers were clawed off. Foul play was at first suspected, but an investigation showed that the man was a teamster named J. Brown (his name being tattooed on the arm), and that he had been missing from the Second division for about two weeks. It is supposed that he crawled under the shock of corn while drunk, died there and that his clothes also showed that something had been gnawing at them. A postmortem examination revealed that he died from congestion of the lungs.

PEACE OF THE WORLD

May Be Endangered Unless the United States Takes the Philippines.

London, Nov. 8.—The Daily Mail this morning urges the American people to pronounce boldly in favor of retaining the Philippines "for otherwise there will be a scramble for coaling stations that will endanger the peace of the world."

The Standard says: "We can see no alternative. Spain must accept as inevitable the loss of the Philippines. No doubt the United States will assume a heavy and serious responsibility, but it augurs well for the future that the public men of America appreciate and are ready to meet it. England will watch the experiment with every wish for a favorable issue."

The Daily News wonders whether trouble is brewing in the Philippines, arising from German opposition to annexation.

No Report From Day. Washington, Nov. 8.—Peace negotiations were resumed at Paris today in accordance with the adjournment of the commission last Friday. In view of the phase which the disagreement between the United States and Spanish commissioners has reached over the question of the Philippines it is not likely that any material progress will be made in the negotiations today. It is said at the state department that no report has been received from Judge Day and that none is expected until after today's session. This lack of information is accepted as an indication that there have been no developments in the situation.

Has Not Addressed the Powers. Madrid, Nov. 8.—Premier Sagasta was questioned yesterday as to whether it was a fact that the Spanish government had addressed a note to the powers asking the latter if they would support Spain in protesting against "The intentions of the United States toward the Philippine islands." He replied that such a note had not yet been dispatched.

Three or Four More Sitzings. Madrid, Nov. 8.—Members of the cabinet assert that there will be three or four more sittings of the peace conference at Paris.

A DECISION FOR DREYFUS

By the Court of Cassation to Be the Signal For Fomenting a Riot, the Overthrow of the Civil Government and the Assassination of Leading Friends of the Celebrated Prisoner.

London, Nov. 8.—The Daily Chronicle says this morning: "We have received information from a reliable quarter of a well organized plot in Paris, in the event of the inquiry before the court of cassation proving favorable to Dreyfus, to foment a riotous outburst in the French capital, to attempt to overthrow the civil power and to assassinate the leading champions of Dreyfus."

"These reports are confirmed by interviews had with M. Trarieux, former minister of justice, and M. De Pressens, foreign editor of The Temps, as well as others. The police have warned those friends of Dreyfus to change their residence temporarily, or at least to carry revolvers."

This government isn't looking for trouble in the east, but if trouble should come, it is fully determined that it shall not catch us unprepared. The cruiser Buffalo and the gun boat Helios, are on the way, via the Suez canal, to Manila, to join Admiral Dewey's squadron, and the battleships Iowa and Oregon are on the way, via Honolulu, to the same place. With these four vessels added to his present force, Dewey will have a naval force second to that of no country except England in Eastern waters.

CLOSE OF THE CAMPAIGN.

A Large and Enthusiastic Meeting at the Opera House Last Night.

The meeting at the opera house last night was attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd of our citizens. The addresses were made by Hon. S. A. Barnes and Hon. O. H. Montgomery. Both both strongly in of the citizens ticket, which is opposed to longer continuance of ring control our county politics and in favor of honest and fearless administration of all the laws, whether they affect any particular section or close of people or not. The interest in the meeting was the very best and that spirit of determination which is a characteristic of Seymour people was shown toward the effort to elect the citizen's ticket at the polls today.

Election Today.

The election here today is passing off very quietly. The effort of all the workers is to get the vote out, and in this they are succeeding quite well. At noon about half of the vote had been polled. Reports from over the county indicate that there is a quiet but determined effort being put forth, and there is little doubt that the vote in this county will be quite heavy. The counting out will probably be quite slow as there are three ballots this year and it will be late this evening before returns begin to come in.

Parsnip Complexion.

It does not require an expert to detect the sufferer from kidney trouble. The hollow cheeks, the sunken eyes, the dark, puffy circles under the eyes, the sallow parsnip-colored complexion indicates it.

A physician would ask if you had rheumatism, a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or a burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor. When these symptoms are present, no time should be lost in removing the cause.

Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stoppage, and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments, or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of Kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is a positive remedy for such diseases. Its reputation is world-wide and it is so easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it.

However, if you prefer to first test its wonderful merits, mention the Seymour REPUBLICAN and write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. for a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

NAVAL NAVIGATORS.

THEY HAVE MANY VERY SERIOUS DUTIES TO PERFORM.

Besides a Thorough Nautical Training the Officer Who Navigates a Man-of-war Must Be Possessed of a Vast Fund of Technical Scientific Knowledge.

It is doubtful if any office in the navy, aside from an absolute command, involves so vast a responsibility as that of navigator of a man-of-war. The duties of this important station in former years fell to officers of the rank of master, but with the abolition of that grade its affairs devolved upon the lieutenants holding the highest numbers on the list. Upon the navigator of a warship depends not only the task of shaping the vessel's course for any point across the sea to which her destinies may direct her, but also the responsibility of piloting her in and out of harbor and of selecting a safe anchorage for her in every port visited during the period of her cruise. Hence, it follows that, combined with a thorough nautical training, the competent navigator must be possessed of a vast fund of geographical, meteorological and hydrographical knowledge. While at sea, he must know the vessel's position to a degree, which necessitates his taking frequent observations of the celestial bodies and making solutions of intricate problems in geometry and trigonometry, such as constantly arise through deviations, brought about by innumerable causes, from her given course.

Unquestionably the most important element in navigation, because of its infallibility under ordinary conditions, in determining the latitude, longitude and error in the ship's compass, is what is known in maritime phraseology as "nautical astronomy." With the aid of a sextant or quadrant for measuring the altitude of the heavenly bodies above the horizon or their distance from each other, a timepiece to mark the instant of an observation, a chronometer to show the time at the first meridian, a nautical almanac and an azimuth compass, the navigator can readily determine his position with the utmost exactitude.

The average voyage is more or less characterized by erroneous estimates in distances sailed, in varying currents, careless steering, deviation in the compass and numerous other obstacles, and upon the navigator rests the responsibility of adjusting such errors. In long passages across the open sea the navigator is governed by a rather complex combination of motives, which may be summed up as follows: To cover the required distance in the shortest space of time with the smallest expenditure of fuel and the least wear and tear of the vessel that is possible.

With these objects in view the navigator must prior to sailing superintend personally the stowing of the hold, the arrangement of ballast, water, provisions, stores, etc., and the inspection and adjustment of the motive appliances of the ship, all of which features, severally and collectively, greatly affect her speed and seaworthiness.

If his vessel possesses the facilities for making sail, he must while at sea exercise the keenest judgment and foresight as to utilizing the same, for sail used to good advantage is a great saver of coal, while otherwise, if used indiscriminately, it may entail much loss of time. The expert navigator draws the line with exceeding fineness between a high fair wind and a gale, making the most of the former as long as his vessel is not jeopardized, heaving her to at just the proper period and getting under way again at the first sign of moderation in the weather. The commander of a warship reposes the utmost confidence in a skilled and careful navigator and rarely interferes with his plans. Another of the numerous details coming under the navigator's supervision is the keeping of the ship's log. This is commenced by him at the time the vessel is placed in commission, and its pages record the events of each succeeding day. There is absolutely nothing which transpires officially on board of a man-of-war that is not written in the log, and each day the navigator must carry it to the commanding officer for his inspection. At the expiration of every six months the ship's log must be closed and forwarded to the navy department at Washington, where it is placed among the records.

The navigator is provided with a large and varied assortment of instruments and appliances designed to facilitate his work. While in port he is often detailed to make surveys of portions of the coast line which may be defective upon the charts or to determine the exact location of rocks or shoals which hitherto have not been marked with sufficient accuracy.

The navigator has charge of all the various weather indicators of the vessel and must render quarterly reports of all meteorological observations. These are taken at regular intervals by the quartermaster of the watch and fully entered upon the ship's log. The navigator must regularly inspect the steering gear, compasses, anchors and chain cables of the ship and daily report their condition to the commanding officer. He must also keep a separate book in which are recorded all calculations relating to the navigation of the vessel and in which no erasures are permitted to be made. At the expiration of the cruise this book is forwarded to the bureau of navigation.

The duties of a navigating officer are more than sufficient to fully occupy his time, but, notwithstanding this fact he frequently stands his watch at sea. While in port he is ex officio the executive officer during the latter's absence from the vessel.

The illustrious Dewey was, during the earlier period of his career, an acknowledged expert as a navigator, and to his excellent ability in maneuvering may be largely accredited his splendid victory at Manila.—Philadelphia Times.

A SILLY TRAGEDY.

The Duel Between Tom Porter and Sir Henry Bellasis.

Some of the Royalists who were forced to endure the English commonwealth seemed to console themselves for the dullness of life under a Puritan government by fighting as many duels as they could compass, so that ignoble squabbles and foolish plots make up the history of their days.

Tom Porter was of a family which had zealously served the king. Under the new government his occupation was gone, and he descended to a triviality of life which finally involved him in a most pathetic event. This was a duel which he fought with his friend, Sir Henry Bellasis, and which, says Pepys in his "Diary," is worth remembering for "the silliness of the quarrel" * * * a kind of emblem of the general complexion of the whole kingdom.

But silly as the quarrel undoubtedly was it carried in it an element of heart-break.

The two young men involved were intimate friends and companions, but one day, "being merry in company," Tom Porter said he should like to see the man in England who would dare give him a blow. With that Sir Henry Bellasis struck him a box on the ear. The inevitable duel followed, wherein each was wounded. Sir Henry proved to be seriously hurt, so he called Porter, kissed him and bade him fly.

"For," said he, "Tom, thou hast hurt me. But I will make shift to stand upon my legs till thou mayst withdraw, for I would not have thee troubled for what thou hast done."

Porter profited by his friend's generosity and escaped to France. Sir Henry died a few days later, and Pepys concludes, "It is pretty to see how the world do talk of them as a couple of fools that killed one another out of love."
